Are you navigating the complexities of obtaining a Green Card or U.S. citizenship? Don’t miss an exclusive opportunity to hear from immigration expert David Lunel, Esq., in an upcoming French-language webinar tailored for French-speaking individuals dealing with U.S. immigration.

Webinar Topic:

Green Card & Citizenship: Exploring Your Options and Appeals with U.S. Immigration Authorities

Date & Time:

Tuesday, October 29, 2024
12pm ET · 11am CT · 9am PT · 5pm France

During this insightful session, David Lunel will guide the various pathways to obtaining a Green Card and U.S. citizenship. The webinar will cover crucial topics, including:

- How to navigate delays in USCIS processing
- Legal options for appealing or contesting USCIS decisions
- Key challenges faced by French-speaking immigrants in today’s U.S. immigration landscape

Whether you are dealing with stalled cases, or refusals, or need expert advice, this webinar will provide valuable information to help you confidently move forward.

Why Attend?

David Lunel, a seasoned immigration attorney, will share his extensive legal expertise and answer your questions live. Participants will also have the opportunity to submit questions in advance to ensure a personalized experience.

This is a free event hosted in partnership with French Morning, and registration is open now.

Register Here

Don’t miss this chance to gain clarity on your U.S. immigration journey!

Check into the Exclusive Webinar on Immigration – U.S. Green Card & Citizenship Pathways

Missed the Webinar? Watch the Replay: Green Card & U.S. Citizenship Pathways with David Lunel

We’re excited to share that our recent French-language webinar on Green Card and U.S. citizenship pathways, hosted by David Lunel, Esq., was a great success! If you couldn’t join us live, you can now watch the replay to learn more about U.S. immigration options for French-speaking individuals, particularly on how to address common challenges with USCIS.

Webinar Overview: Green Card & U.S. Citizenship – Options and Recourse with U.S. Immigration Authorities

In this informative session, David Lunel provided in-depth guidance on the different routes to obtaining a Green Card and U.S. citizenship. Key topics covered include:

- Understanding Green Card Options and Citizenship Criteria: Learn about the primary paths to permanent residency and citizenship, and which options might be best suited for your situation.
- Handling USCIS Delays and Refusals: The webinar addressed issues surrounding abnormal processing times and actions you can take if you are faced with a USCIS denial.
- Challenges for Francophone Immigrants: David shared insights on the unique challenges currently impacting French-speaking immigrants in the U.S., with a focus on today’s evolving immigration landscape.

Watch the Replay Below

Meet the Speaker: David Lunel, Esq.

David Lunel, a skilled immigration attorney and member of the Georgia State Bar, brings extensive expertise in U.S. immigration law, with particular experience supporting French-speaking clients. Fluent in French, he bridges the language gap, providing valuable assistance to those navigating the complexities of the U.S. immigration system.

Have Questions? Contact Us!

If you have any questions after watching the replay or need assistance with your own immigration journey, feel free to reach out to David Lunel at [david@lunellaw.com].