What to Expect at the Interview

Phase	What Happens
Review of your form (N-400)	USCIS officer will verify the information on your application, ask if there have been changes since you submitted, and allow you to correct any mistakes. (e.g. name, address, marital status) USCIS
Identification & background checks	You'll present identification documents. Fingerprints and other background checks may be confirmed.

Phase	What Happens
English test	If required, this includes speaking, reading one sentence aloud, and writing one sentence correctly. Exceptions exist based on age/permanent residency time. USCIS+1
Civics test	Questions about U.S. history & government . If interviewed before Oct 20, 2025, you'll take the 2008 version; if after, the 2025 version. USCIS+1

Documents You Should Bring

- Your appointment notice (Form N-445 or other)
- Valid photo ID (passport, driver's license, etc.)
- Your Permanent Resident Card (Green Card)
- Copies of documents supporting changes (if applicable): marriage, divorce, name change
- Proof of continuous residence if needed
- Any documents the officer asked you to bring in the application notice
